Temple Menorah Services Will Honor Couple

Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, of 1718 Camino de la Costa, will be honored Friday night, Dec. 9th at Sabbath Service at Temple Menorah, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach at 8:30 p.m. During the Services they will receive a blessing in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary. They were married in Dayton, Ohio, on Dec. 1, 1940.

Following the services an Oneg Shabbat (reception) will be held in their honor. Assisting Mrs. Johnson as hostesses will be Mesdames Sam Katz and David Levine.

The two teen-age sons of the Johnsons, Sandor and Gary, will witness the blessing of their parents.

Rabbi Henri E. Front will recite the blessing and Cantor Harry Newman will chant the liturgy. The Temple Menorah Choir will be under the direction of Fay Newman, organist.

Blue Birds Make Gifts For Hospital

Newly formed "Joyful Blue Birds" of North Torrance have planned a busy winter of activities. The 19 members of the Joyful Blue Birds celebrated their organization at a Halloween barbeque dinner given by Joe Tomilson, father of one of the members of the group.

The Blue Bird group recently completed their first craft project of Thanksgiving corsages, and presented the corsages to women patients of Harbor General Hospital. The Joyful Blue Birds are now busily engaged in making Christmas favors and presents for patients of Harbor General Hospital.

Mrs. Rudy Contreras, leader of the group, said that the girls will participate in the combined North Torrance Blue Bird Christmas caroling program on Dec. 11. Co-leaders, Mrs. Steve Stephenson and Mrs. Joe Tomilson, are in charge of planning the Christmas crafts for the Joyful Blue Birds.

Pro Musica Concert Set

A concert by Pro Musica, under the direction of Harold Chelberg, has been scheduled for the Trinity Lutheran Church, 9th and Weymouth, San Pedro, at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The program will include Christmas motets from the 16th and 20th centuries, two organ selections by Bach, and a Christmas cantata by Bach, "For Unto Us a Child is Born."

A "Ceremony of Carols," for chorus and harp by Benjamin Britten and featuring boy sopranos Roderick and Lloyd Wilkes, has been scheduled as a highlight of the evening.

Among local performers appearing with Pro Musica will be Louise Mansfield, Ann Michaelson, Mary Ellen Barnes, Betty Abramson, Karen Johnson, Shirley Robbins, Mary Cowger, and Bruce Boyd.

PRODUCE

Only the best from the fertile California farm country is chosen to fill Magic Chef's produce stands—delectable crisp lettuce; firm, close-leaved artichokes; big, rosy-red strawberries; tender young peas. And what comes into the market good stays good—special lighting protects Magic Chef produce from the harmful effects of ultraviolet rays. Magic Chef produce is handled as tenderly as a first baby—and shows it.
